About Your Instructor

Welcome to Composition II!. I've taught several different English courses, and I've tutored for several years as well. I look forward to meeting all of you and becoming part of Odessa College!

Preferred Method of Communication:

I prefer to communicate via email, but I will answer my office phone during office hours and will return calls if voicemail is left on my phone.

Expectations for Engagement for Instructor:

As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication, I will

- provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;
- respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and,
- notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will

- provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the

- course syllabus, and
- communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will

- post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.
- provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.

Course Description

Intensive study of and practice in writing processes, from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. Emphasis on effective rhetorical choices, including audience, purpose, arrangement, and style. Focus on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating, and critical analysis.

Course Prerequisites:

C or better in Engl 0370 or proper placement scores based on TSI

Course Topics:

Personal narrative, argument, analysis, reader response, and evaluation

Type of Assignment	Percentage/Points	Learning Objective
Participation	20%	1, 4
Essay 1	10%	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
Essay 2	15%	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
Essay 3	15%	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
Essay 4	20%	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
Final Exam	20%	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
	100%	TOTAL

Grading Scale:

“A” = 90-100

“B” = 80-89

“C” = 70-79

“D” = 60-69

“F” = 0-59

Exams

There will be a diagnostic essay exam on the first day of class that is graded only on completion. The points given go toward your in class work credit; the exam is used to determine the class's writing abilities and weaknesses. The final exam will be given during the final exam week. More information about the final will be given as the semester progresses.

Essays

Four (4) essays will be assigned throughout the semester; the papers' percentages will increase as the semester progresses. Prompts for the essays will be distributed in class on the first day of each unit. You are required to turn in a completed draft of your essay the class before it is due for in class peer review. All essays should be formatted in the MLA style, which means all essays must be typed and double-spaced in a standard font (Calibri, Times New Roman, etc.) with one-inch margins. Standard identifying information (student name, instructor name, course name and section number, and date due) should be in the upper left-hand corner of the first page – there is no need for a separate cover page. The page number with your last name should be on every page in the upper right hand corner. The title should be centered and correctly capitalized. Failure to adhere to these specifications may result in a point reduction on the essay. The MLA guidelines will be discussed at more length in class. Papers will be submitted to Blackboard. Do not expect to receive a passing grade in the course if you do not turn in ALL essays.

Revisions

In this course, you will focus more time on revising and correcting your written work. You will work to improve content, as well as grammar and mechanics, in your revisions. When I respond to your writing, I use a minimal marking system to indicate errors. I will put checkmarks next to the line in which an error is present; it is up to you to identify the type of error present and make necessary corrections. The amount of spelling and grammatical errors must decrease with each essay you write. Keep notes of how to correct your most frequent errors and use these notes when you edit and proofread your papers. As an incentive to encourage you to locate errors and revise content issues that are still in final graded drafts, you may earn back some points deducted. In order to regain these points, you must re-edit and revise your essays and schedule a conference with me so that it is clear to me that you understand what needs to be edited or revised. All revisions must have a rewrite form attached to them (this is available in the Coursework section on Blackboard under the Handouts folder). When you turn in a rewrite, please submit the following:

- the original paper with my markings and rubric,
- the revised and edited version,
- and a rewrite form signed by me.

All revisions are due by the end of the semester. You cannot submit a rewrite of an essay if the original final draft of the essay was never turned in on time.

Journals

There will be three (3) collections of the journals. These journals are the chance for you to practice writing without worrying about grammar, spelling, etc.; also, the journals are a place for you to reflect upon your learning and development in the course. The only way you can truly improve your writing is to begin writing much, much more; thus, this journal is important to your development as a writer. While I do not grade journals based on grammar, spelling, etc., I do pay attention to the development of ideas, the depth of details and description, and the strength of your voice. Creativity is encouraged, but try to be as neat as possible. The prompts for the journals will be provided on Blackboard.

Class Participation

Courses of this nature work best when everyone participates in class discussions and group work. We will all learn best when we have all voices and opinions represented, but this means that you must treat your classmates with respect, even if you disagree with their opinions and ideas. If you are unwilling or unable to treat others with respect, you will speak with the department dean, and your future in this course will be in jeopardy.

NOTE:

For any 3-credit class, a student is expected to spend an average of 6-8 hours outside of class each week reading, writing, revising, and studying course materials. Throughout the semester, you will be required to devote a significant amount of time preparing materials for class. DO NOT expect to complete all of your work during class time. Lastly, do not expect to pass the class if you do not a) attend most of the class meetings and b) turn in all major assignments.

As a student, I understand that I am responsible for keeping up with the course. To help with this, I will

- identify alternative computer and internet access in case my primary computer crashes or my internet service is unavailable;
- recognize that the college provides free wi-fi and computer labs during regular campus hours to help me with accessing my course; and,
- understand that my instructor does not have to accept my technical issues as a legitimate reason for late or missing work if my equipment or service is unreliable.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate quickly with the instructor any issue or emergency that will impact my involvement with or performance in the class. This includes, but is not limited to

- getting “kicked off” of the system during tests or quizzes;
- having trouble submitting assignments; and
- dealing with a traumatic personal event.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to understand course material and requirements and to keep up with the course calendar. While my instructor is available for help and clarification, I will

- seek out help from my instructor and/or from tutors;
- ask questions if I don't understand; and
- access my course several times during the week to keep up with assignments and announcements.

As a student, I understand that I will have the opportunity to provide feedback on my experience in this course through an end-of-course Student Evaluation of Instruction (SEI).

Tuition Discounts

The “First Course is Free” discount waives standard tuition and fees for the first 3 credit hours taken at Odessa College. The discount applies to high school graduates taking their first class at Odessa College as well as transfer students taking their first class at Odessa College.

The “Academic Progress Discount” provides a 10% tuition discount upon completion of 30 credit hours until reaching 45 credit hours. It provides a 20% discount upon completion of 45 credit hours until reaching 60 credit hours. Student must maintain a 2.0 GPA to remain eligible for the discount.

Academic Policies

Note that the OC Student Handbook states (page 32) that “[i]n cases of academic dishonesty, the instructor has the authority to impose appropriate scholastic penalties. Complaints or appeals of disciplinary sanctions may be filed in accordance with the college due process procedure. Copies of the college due process procedure are available in the office of The Director of Student Life (CC104).”

For more information on your rights and responsibilities as a student at Odessa College, please refer to the following: The 411 of OC: Student Handbook 2012-2013; Student Rights & Responsibilities

<http://www.odessa.edu/dept/studenthandbook/handbook.pdf>

Scholastic Dishonesty

Scholastic dishonesty shall constitute a violation of these rules and regulations and is punishable as prescribed by board policies. Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism and collusion.

"Cheating on a test" shall include:

- Copying from another student's test paper
- Using test materials not authorized by the person administering the test.
- Collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test without permission from the test administrator.
- Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing or soliciting, in whole or in part, the contents of an unadministered test.
- The unauthorized transporting or removal, in whole or in part, of the contents of the unadministered test.
- Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for one's self, to take a test.
- Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.
- "Plagiarism" shall be defined as the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's own written work.
- "Collusion" shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements. (Source: Odessa College Student Handbook 2012-2013, page 29-30)

Special Populations/Disability Services/Learning Assistance

Odessa College complies with Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If you have any special needs or issues pertaining to your access to and participation in this or any other class at Odessa College, please feel free to contact me to discuss your concerns. You may also call the Office of Disability services at 432-335-6861 to request assistance and accommodations.

Odessa College affirms that it will provide access to programs, services and activities to qualified individuals with known disabilities as required by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and

Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), unless doing so poses an undue hardship or fundamentally alters the nature of the program or activity Disabilities may include hearing, mobility or visual impairments as well as hidden disabilities such as chronic medical conditions (arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, kidney disorders, lupus, seizure disorders, etc.), learning disabilities or psychiatric or emotional disabilities. A student who comes to Odessa College with diagnosed disabilities which may interfere with learning may receive accommodations when the student requests them and submits proper documentation of the diagnosis. A Request for Accommodations form and guidelines for beginning the request process are available in the OC Help Center or on the Odessa College web site at <http://www.odessa.edu/dept/counseling/disabilities/index.htm>. The college strives to provide a complete and appropriate range of services for students with disabilities such as assistance with testing, registration, information on adaptive and assistive equipment, tutoring, assistance with access and accommodations for the classroom where appropriate. For information regarding services, students with disabilities should contact the Office of Disability Services in the OC Help Center located in Room 204 of the Student Union Building or call 432-335-6433. (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 52)

Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office.

Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. Students who are part of the Armed Forces Reserves may withdraw with a full refund if the withdrawal is due to their being ordered into active duty. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped. Failure of a student to complete the drop/withdrawal process will result in a grade of "F."

Core Objectives (COs)

Description of Core Objectives (CO's)

Given the rapid evolution of necessary knowledge and skills and the need to take into account global, national, state, and local cultures, the core curriculum must ensure that students will develop the essential knowledge and skills they need to be successful in college, in a career, in their communities, and in life.

Therefore, with the assistance of the Undergraduate Education Advisory Committee, the Coordinating Board has approved guidelines for a core curriculum for all undergraduate students in Texas.

Through the application and assessment of objectives within the institution's core curriculum, students will gain a foundation of knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world; develop principles of personal and social responsibility for living in a diverse world; and advance intellectual and practical skills that are essential for all learning. Appropriate Odessa College faculty periodically evaluates all of the courses listed in the descriptions on the following pages of this catalog and keys them to Odessa

College's Core Objectives (COs), as defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board

Odessa College's Core Objectives (COs):

1. Critical Thinking Skills (CT) - to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information

2. Communication Skills (COM) - to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication

3. Empirical and Quantitative Skills (EQS) - to include the manipulation and analysis of numerical data or observable facts resulting in informed conclusions

4. Teamwork (TW) - to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal

5. Social Responsibility (SR) - to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities

6. Personal Responsibility (PR) - to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making

English and Foreign Languages

ENGL 1301, ENGL 1302, and ENGL 2311 meet the Communication Foundation component area because they focus on using writing to develop ideas and express them clearly, considering the effect of the message, fostering understanding, and building the skills needed to communicate
