ACADEMIC

HONESTY

Scholastic dishonesty shall constitute a violation of rules and regulations and is punishable as prescribed by board policies. Scholastic dishonest shall include but not limited to, cheating on test, plagiarism and collusion. Cheating on a test shall include: copying from another's students' test paper, using test materials not authorized by a person administering the test or the test administrator.

Collaborating includes seeking aid from another student during the test without permission from the administrator. Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing or soliciting, in whole or in part, the contents of an un-administered test. The unauthorized transporting or removal, in whole or in part, of the contents of a test will be considered dishonest. Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for one's self, to take a test. Bribing another person to obtain an un-administered test or information about an un-administered test means another's work and the acknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's written work. Plagiarism shall be defined as the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any written work for fulfillment of course requirements. Reference: Odessa College Student Handbook Student Rights and responsibilities 2007-2009. Collusion shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person preparing course materials.
