LEARNING OUTCOMES: As outlined in the learning plan, the student will apply the theory, concepts, and skills involving specialized materials, tools, equipment, procedures, regulations, laws, and interactions within and among political, economic, environmental, social, and legal systems associated with the occupation and the business/industry; and, will demonstrate legal and ethical behavior, safety practices, interpersonal and teamwork skills, and appropriate written and verbal communication skills using the terminology of the occupation and the business/industry.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Course objectives utilize the framework of Differentiated Entry Level Competencies of Graduates of Texas Nursing Programs. At the completion of the course, according to the corresponding program outcome (PO), the student should be able to:

Provider of Care:

1. Describe the health status and health needs of clients based upon interpretation of health data and preventive health practices. (PO 1)
2. Identify nursing diagnoses and interventions from assessment data, and choose appropriate goals based on the decision making process. (PO 2, 3)
3. Give examples of simple teaching plans appropriate to client health status to promote, maintain and restore health in a caring environment. (PO 4)

Coordinator of Care:

4. Explain appropriate human and material resources for the provision of care for clients. (PO 8)
5. Recognize resources to facilitate continuity of care. (PO 10)

Member of a Profession:

6. Comprehend accountability and responsibility for actions in nursing care, including legal and ethical boundaries (PO 12)

TEACHING/LEARNING METHODS: This course utilizes clinical practice within a structured environment with close faculty supervision. Students learn by providing hands-on care to one patient under the guidance and direction of faculty, and hospital/agency staff nurses. As appropriate for the setting, students will discuss each of their patients with an instructor or agency staff member on each clinical day. Students will be expected to be able to knowledgeably discuss each patient's diagnoses, selected diagnostic tests and the results, selected lab work and the results, medications and why the patient is receiving them, and any signs or symptoms that the patient has with the appropriate nursing interventions. There will be one-on-one interaction with individual students and faculty, as well as group discussions. Presentations, case studies, and/or discussions may be conducted in pre and post clinical conferences by faculty and/or students.

EVALUATION AND GRADING:

Clinical course grades are Pass (PA) or Fail (F). Clinical objectives and the clinical evaluation forms provide the objective measure of the student's performance. These forms, which provide the grading criteria for this course, are included at the back of the syllabus.

The student should refer to the Nursing Student Handbook for further information on clinical requirements and grading policies.

Instructor observation of care delivered to clients, input from agency staff, written assessments and care plans, charting, assigned written work (pre and post work), and other requirements are included in the assessment of clinical performance. Verbal and written feedback on student performance occurs throughout the course (formative evaluation). A summative or final evaluation occurs at the end of the course. Mid-point or rotational evaluations are utilized in this course. If the student has been told he/she made an error, a clinical evaluation will be given immediately with a corrective prescription to remediate. If the student demonstrates unsafe clinical practice, the student may receive an unsatisfactory clinical evaluation and may be dropped from the course. Unsafe occurrences are found in the Nursing Student Handbook and learning materials packet. Students are encouraged to speak with instructors at any time regarding clinical performance.

Clinical evaluation will reflect the student's ability to meet clinical objectives and to implement classroom theory. It is the instructor's expectation that clinical nursing skills will be performed in a manner that shows the application of the basic nursing skills and principles learned through training as a nurse aide, and basic and intermediate skills learned in Health Assessment and Nursing Skills I. This evaluation also reflects theory presented during the first semester of the Associate Degree Nursing Program at Odessa College.

Any identified weakness will need to be strengthened by the end of the course. As the course progresses, the instructor may rate clinical objectives as Satisfactory (S), Needs Improvement (NI), or Unsatisfactory (U). Satisfactory ratings of clinical objectives signify at least minimal accomplishment of tasks as stated or required. The student must be consistent in performing nursing responsibilities. A satisfactory (S) rating on all objectives on the summative (final) evaluation is necessary for the student to earn a pass (PA) in clinical courses.

Unsatisfactory ratings on clinical objectives signify unacceptable performance in one or more areas. The student displays one or more of the following:

- 1) Unsafe practice by the lack of application of principles of safety and asepsis
- 2) Failure to accomplish task(s)
- 3) Disregard for the client and /or family in administering care
- 4) Inability to identify or correct errors
- 5) Inability to transfer theory knowledge to clinical practice
- 6) Inconsistent clinical behavior in the performance of nursing responsibilities

The clinical evaluation tool denotes non-critical and critical elements. A critical element is defined as a behavior to be met during each clinical experience. Critical elements are distinguished on the evaluation form by the use of **.

In case of a clinical failure, the student will be apprised of the failure as soon as reasonably possible. If a clinical failure occurs before the end of the semester, the student has the option of continuing in the didactic course although a passing grade cannot be issued in the didactic course since the clinical course was failed. If the student questions the decision, he/she may refer to the grievance policy.
