About Your Instructor

Hello, everybody. My name is Donna Smith. I've been teaching English here at Odessa College since 1982. I'm married (to another English teacher in the department, Dr. Mark Jordan) and we have two daughters who are mostly grown up and away from home. When I have free time, I like to jog, work-out, read, watch bad TV, go to movies, and try to be artistic (pottery, drawing, gardening, sewing, painting).

Preferred Method of Communication:

My preferred form of communication is face-to-face. However, I welcome emails and phone calls. I really like texting--you have my cell phone number. If you email me, you'll get an answer within 24 hours, maybe right away if I'm sitting at my computer (as I often am). If I don't pick up the phone, then please leave me a clear voice mail, where you tell me your name and a good number and time to return the call. If you text me, please tell me who you are in the text.

Expectations for Engagement for Instructor:

As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication, I will provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;

respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and, notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.

provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.

getting "kicked off" of the system during tests or quizzes;

Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. Students who are part of the Armed Forces Reserves may withdraw with a full refund if the withdrawal is due to their being ordered into active duty. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped. Failure of a student to complete the drop/withdrawal process will result in a grade of "F." (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 36)
